

We're here to help!

Call these extensions for answers to your public health questions at 613-549-1232 or toll free at 1-800-267-7875.

Child &amp; Babytalk.....	1555	Immunization Reporting Line.....	1451
Public health nurses answer prenatal, infant, and childcare questions, and provide resources on family health issues.		Parents can call to report their child's immunizations for up-to-date immunization records.
Communicable Disease.....	1287	Living Well Phone Line.....	1180
Public health nurses, inspectors, and infection control practitioners answer questions about infectious diseases and childhood illnesses.		Information on getting and staying active, community programs, workplace wellness, and walking routes.
Dental Health.....	1218	Preschool Speech &amp; Language.....	1184
Access and information to services including treatment programs, dental screenings in elementary schools, and sports mouthguards.		Early Expressions is a system of partner agencies that provides speech and language services to preschool children living in the KFL&A area. Early Expressions will accept referrals for children not yet eligible for senior kindergarten.
Dial-a-Dietitian.....	1224	Raise a Little Health.....	1102
Registered dietitians answer questions about food, nutrition, and healthy eating.		This educator info line assists teachers with their health teaching and booking resources.
Environmental Health.....	1231	Sexual Health.....	1275
Public health inspectors provide information on indoor air quality, food safety, private sewage system inspection, and well water testing.		Confidential information and counselling about birth control and sexually transmitted infections by a public health nurse.
Flu Info Line.....	1433	Tobacco Information Line.....	1333
Information on KFL&A Public Health's FREE Flu Clinics across the KFL&A area, including dates and locations.		Information on quitting smoking, tobacco and the law, community resources, and other tobacco issues.
Infant Hearing.....	1145	Travel Clinic Line.....	613-549-2335
Parents of newborn babies in Southeastern Ontario are offered a free hearing-screening test to detect newborns with signs of hearing loss.		Travellers can call to book appointments for the Travel Immunization Clinic.
Immunization Information Line.....	1451	Volunteer Services.....	1159
Information on immunization, including provincially funded childhood immunizations.		Volunteers are an important part of a dedicated team delivering public health programs to KFL&A residents.	